

Cancellation Policy

A $100 deposit is collected at the time of booking to secure your appointment. If you then wish to cancel your appointment for any reason, you must give a minimum of 72 hours notice in business hours in order to qualify for a refund of your deposit. Cancellations made within this time frame, or no-shows will not be eligible for a refund. Alternatively if you wish to reschedule I am happy to hold and transfer your deposit to a new date and time. If you meet the above criteria and request a refund of deposit, the deposit will be sent back to you the same way you paid via Paypal less any Paypal fees. Paypal currently take a $3.85 transaction fee from the $100 deposit. So the amount you will receive back is $96.15. Thank you for your understanding.
